

CASA SANTIAGO HOME OF OLD WORLD TRADITIONS

Beyond the facade of the Mexican house is a world of unusual beauty and character, the result of a marriage of Spanish and Indian culture, of old world tradition and new world innovation. Emerge into the elegant living room with its massive fireplace, looking beyond to the den and garden. The formal dining room is accented by a dramatic cupola. The master suite opens onto a large outside balcony. The dressing room features a gigantic walk-in closet. Wood beams with decking ceilings are found in the entry, living and dining rooms, and master bedroom. Three bedrooms, den, three baths. 2931 square feet.

