

Enjoy the southwestern lifestyle in this home amid a high angular ceiling of light, which softly illuminates a series of living spaces. Designed for entertaining and harmonious family living, you can relax with your guests in the conversation pit that overlooks the gazebo and the sparkling waters of a tingling plunge.

Stepped wall partitions and arched through-ways, further remind us of the southwestern lifestyle as we envision ancient ruins of a once flourishing era. The kitchen encompasses the informal dining, family entertainment, and exterior areas, to put the host and hostess at the center of activity and family and friends at ease.

These living spaces are unified by the central atrium, lush with exotic and unusual plant life, that sheds natural light within, to create a sense of refreshing outdoor living.

And finally, for your quiet moments, comfort is our requirement in the cozy sitting area just off the master suite. Soak in the warmth emitted from the fireplace over a glass of wine. Later, relax those tense muscles in your garden bath surrounded by nature's finest, inside and out, in private seclusion.

As we leave this residence your eyes are bathed in the lush exterior landscaping, beckoning us to return to this garden home and further experience the southwest's lifestyle of comfort and freedom.
