

This home is unparalleled in garden living. Complimented with a beautifully lush atrium, centrally located off the bedroom wing, we are delighted by the additional soft light diffused into the very center of this home. The large atrium provides a visually appealing focal point from room to room and brings the outdoor pleasures inside to surround us with greenery and a sense of quiet fulfillment.

Designed for the couple or family that enjoys informal times together and quiet moments alone, the sitting room, adjacent to the master bedroom, will become a favorite area to reflect by a comforting fire after a busy day.

The truly charming country kitchen recalls fond memories of family and friends joining together for a holiday feast. This open and efficient gourmet kitchen beckons us to try our culinary talents with promises of success.

For those formal entertaining times or large family functions, the living room, complimented by a bay window, provides just the right space for freedom and ease.

This home reflects the relaxed way of life that is Arizona, and becomes an enjoyable center of good times and warm feelings.
